Product description

Used plastic lattice pallet measuring 1200x800x160 mm. With a Euronorm of 1200x800, a commonly used standard size for pallets. With a length of 1200 mm and a width of 800 mm, this size offers efficient storage and transport options, allowing goods to be easily stacked and exchanged between different logistics systems. The grid design ensures optimal ventilation and drainage, making it ideal for use in humid environments or when storing fresh produce. Moreover, this pallet is nestable, which means it can be easily stacked together when empty.
